ITINERARY

14 Apr 2027 (Wed) Arrive in Santiago Welcome to Chile!

Based on the international flight arrival time at Santiago Airport, private transfers will be arranged for a minimum of two travellers travelling together.

The standard check-in time at the W Santiago hotel is 3:00 PM.

The rest of the day is dedicated to a Santiago city tour, with a walk along the "Alameda," Santiago's lively main avenue, home to landmarks such as the University of Chile, the historic San Francisco Church, and Santa Lucía Hill where the city was founded in 1541.

We then continue to the "Plaza de Armas" and visit the Mercado Central, one of Santiago's most iconic and bustling markets.

Next, we drive through the bohemian Bellavista district and take a funicular up San Cristóbal Hill for sweeping panoramic views of Santiago and the Andes Mountains.

Afterwards, we check in to our hotel to relax

Accommodation: W Santiago Hotel

15 Apr 2027 (Thu) Casablanca Valley & Valparaíso (B/D)

Today, embark on a full day excursion to the coastal cities of Valparaíso and Viña del Mar, followed by a visit to one of the world's top wineries in the Casablanca Valley for wine tasting and dinner.

Begin with a scenic drive to the historic port city of Valparaíso, once a humble fishing village, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its bohemian charm.

We will stroll through the downtown area, its narrow, winding streets lined with wooden houses, and striking street art where murals and graffiti turn alleyways into vibrant open-air galleries.

We'll ride Valparaíso's old wooden funicular up to the Concepcion Hill for a spectacular view of the bay.

Afterward, we follow the scenic coastal highway to Viña del Mar, known as the "Garden City." Make stops at the famous flower clock and the iconic Easter Island Moai statue located outside the Fonck Museum.

Continuing along the Concón beaches, we pass coastal scenery, visit at Plaza Vergara and Viña's main shopping avenue and take some free time and lunch on own.

Next, we take a scenic drive to the Casablanca Valley to visit Vinya Casas del Bosque, ranked 49th on the World's Best Vineyards 2024 List.

Founded in 1993 by Juan Cuneo Solari, this boutique estate is nestled between the coastal mountains and the Pacific Ocean. Its 189 hectares of fertile soil and cool climate provide ideal conditions for cultivating white grape varieties. The winery produces exceptional small-batch wines including Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, and Syrah, along with limited blocks of Riesling, Malbec, and Cabernet Franc.

We'll enjoy a guided tour of vineyard and tasting featuring two Gran Reserva wines, one small-production wine, and one Private Reserva.

Dinner is served at one of the estate's three on-site restaurants, where menus are created in collaboration between the chef, winemaker, and sommelier. Surrounded by native hawthorn trees and overlooking the vineyards, enjoy a refined four-course tasting menu or the more adventurous Atrévete ("Dare Yourself") menu, featuring unexpected pairings designed to surprise and delight.

16 Apr 2027 (Fri) Wineries of Colchagua Valley (B/D)

After breakfast, we head south of Santiago on a scenic drive (180 km) to the renowned Colchagua Valley, Chile's most prestigious wine region, famed for its outstanding Syrah and Carmenère wines.

On arrival, we visit the Viu Manent winery, ranked 14th on the Forbes' World's Best Wineries 2025 List.

Founded in 1935, Viu Manent is a symbol of Chilean winemaking, producing estate-grown wines exported to over 30 countries.

Our visit features a tour of the historic family home, offering insights into the winery's heritage, followed by a scenic horse-drawn carriage ride through the vineyards.

We'll then enjoy a tasting of five wines, including three Single Vineyard selections and the renowned El Incidente and Viu Infinito labels.

Lunch on own at restaurant nestled within the Viu Manent estate and overlooking scenic vineyards and equestrian fields.

Wines of the Andes - Chile & Argentina

ITINERARY

We then continue to visit Viña Montes Winery, ranked 17th on the World's Best Vineyards 2024 List.

A true pioneer in the Apalta Valley, Viña Montes was founded in 1935 and today known as a Chilean excellence winery, exporting to 30 countries in the world and producing fine wines only with own grapes. The tour includes a visit to the old residence, to learn about the history of the winery, as well as to the vineyards on a horse-drawn carriage.

Our visit includes a tour of the Apalta vineyards, a guided walk through the winery and barrel room, and a tasting of two Gran Reserva and two Alpha (Premium) wines.

Return to Santiago in the afternoon. Your evening is free at leisure.

17 Apr 2027 (Sat)      Santiago - Mendoza (B)

This morning, we are transferred to the airport for our flight to Mendoza. Nestled against the Andes Mountains, it is one of the country's most famous destinations for wine, nature, and adventure.

Projected Flight: LA 434 SCL-MDZ | 09:00am - 11:06am

Upon arrival, we'll be met and transferred to our hotel. In the afternoon, we'll explore Mendoza on a city tour beginning at Pedro del Castillo Square, with stops at the Alameda of General San Martín, the Área Fundacional Museum, and the San Francisco Church ruins, remnants of the city before the 1861 earthquake.

Continue through tree-lined streets to the modern city, visiting Plaza Independencia, Plaza España, and the Civic Center, then stroll through General San Martín Park with its grand gate, lake, and rose garden, before ascending the Hill of Glory, where a monument honors Argentina's independence and offers sweeping views of the city.

Accommodation: Park Hyatt Hotel Mendoza

18 Apr 2027(Sun)      Mendoza Wineries Tour (B/L)

Starting early, we'll leave Mendoza and take the scenic route via Mount Tupungato to the Uco Valley, one of the world's top high-altitude wine regions. This extraordinary valley is home to many of the world's top wineries,

Our first stop is Bodega DiamAndes, ranked 39th on the World's Best Vineyards 2024 List.

Bodega DiamAndes, named after the surroundings snow-capped peaks diamante. Sits 1,000 meters high in the Andes foothills, the contemporary winery produces intense, elegant wines for both drinking and aging, with striking architecture that complements the stunning landscape.

Our visit includes a vineyard tour and an interactive 'Blend Class Academy,' where we explore grape varieties and the art of blending signature wines.

Next, visit Bodega Salentein, ranked 18th on the World's Best Vineyards 2024 List.

Established in 1996, Salentein is a modern winery set at 1500 meters above sea level as one of the world's highest vineyards.

While Malbec is Mendoza's hallmark, Salentein shines with its elegant Pinot Noir and Cabernet Franc, nurtured by the cool, high-altitude climate.

We will do a visit and tasting including the Salentein and Numina lines, followed by lunch in an exclusive setting featuring gourmet cuisine expertly paired with the finest Bodega Salentein wines. The estate also boasts a striking art gallery, providing time to explore and savor a unique fusion of fine wine and fine art.

Next, we reach Luján de Cuyo Valley, the birthplace of Malbec, surrounded by beautiful homes and vast vineyards. We'll visit Durigutti Family Winemakers ranked 10th on the World's Best Vineyards 2024 List.

Founded in 2002 by the Durigutti brothers, their family winery has become a leading force in the new wave of Argentine wine-making, celebrated for its expressive wines, innovation, and deep respect for the land

Our tour includes a visit to the vineyards and winery, showcasing the significance of Las Compuertas GI, the legacy of Finca Victoria, and their sustainable practices. It concludes with a tasting of five premium, limited-edition wines from their private cellars.

ITINERARY

19 Apr 2027 (Mon) High Andes with Inca Bridge (B) We begin our morning journey along the scenic Mendoza River toward the Chilean border, passing the Potrerillos Dam, a vital source of power and irrigation for the region.

Take in sweeping views of the Andean foothills as you reach the charming village of Uspallata, once a pre-Hispanic settlement of the Huarpes people and the southern edge of the Inca Empire.

Admire the vivid colors and formations of the Cordón del Plata mountains and then continues through rustic mountain villages including Picheuta, Polvaredas, and Punta de Vacas, each reflecting the region's authentic charm.

Stop at Puente del Inca, a natural rock formation with vibrant yellow and red hues, shaped by mineral-rich hot springs at 2,700 meters (8,860 feet) altitude.

Our final stop is Las Cuevas, a quaint mountain village near the Chilean border. Weather permitting, we may ascend to the Cristo Redentor monument or take a short trek to Los Horcones Lagoon for sweeping views of Mount Aconcagua—the highest peak in the Western Hemisphere at 6,959 meters (22,831 feet), before returning to Mendoza.

20 Apr 2027 (Tue) Mendoza - Buenos Aires (B/D)
This morning transfer to Airport for our flight to Buenos Aires.

Projected Flight: AR1400 MDZ–AEP | 12:00-13:40

Upon arrival, you are met and transferred to your hotel. Next, the group has a guided excursion through the Palermo neighborhood, including a stroll through Bosques de Palermo. Following the walk, the vehicle will return to the hotel, and enroute, there is an option for a drop off at MALBA (Museum of Latin American Art) for those who wish to visit independently (ticket cost on own at ARS 12,000/$10 USD).

Accommodation: Sofitel Buenos Aires

Tonight, enjoy dinner and a Tango show at Tango Porteño, a beautifully restored former Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer movie theatre. The performance captures the spirit of tango's golden age. Set in a venue that evokes the elegance of 1940s Buenos Aires, this unforgettable evening blends music, dance, and Argentine flavor.

21 Apr 2027 (Wed) Buenos Aires (B)

Today, enjoy an half day city tour of Buenos Aires tour with a drive along 9 de Julio Avenue, the widest in the world.

Visit Avenida de Mayo and Plaza de Mayo, surrounded by key sites including the Casa Rosada, Metropolitan Cathedral, and the historic Cabildo. Enjoy an interior visit to the Cathedral, where Pope Francis once held mass and where Argentina's national hero, General San Martín, is entombed.

Next, visit La Boca and its famous Caminito Street, known for colorful buildings and street art. Then head to Palermo, Buenos Aires' green district, with its parks, zoo, botanical garden, polo fields, and serene artificial lakes.

End the tour in Recoleta, one of the city's most elegant areas. Explore the famous Recoleta Cemetery, resting place of Argentina's notable figures, including Eva Perón. The mausoleums' architecture reflects the country's rich cultural influences.

This afternoon is free to explore more of the "Paris of South America" at your own pace. Consider visiting Teatro Colón, famed for its world-class acoustics and El Ateneo Grand Splendid, a former theatre turned into one of the world's most beautiful bookstores.

22 Apr 2027 (Thu) Buenos Aires Departure (B)

Today, explore Buenos Aires on your own before transferring to the airport for evening flight home. Below are some optional tours:

Jewish Tour of Buenos Aires (3h)

Explore the history and culture of one of Latin America's largest Jewish communities. Visit the Jewish quarter, AMIA, the Israeli Embassy Memorial, synagogues, and cultural institutions.

The Art Museums of Buenos Aires (3h)

Discover the city's top art museums, including the Museo Nacional de Bellas Artes, MALBA, and MAMBA. View highlights of classical, modern, and contemporary Argentine and Latin American art, guided by expert commentary.

San Isidro and Tigre Delta Tour (6h)

Discover the charm of historic San Isidro and the Tigre Delta, one of the world's largest natural deltas. Enjoy a scenic boat cruise through its winding waterways, followed by lunch at a waterfront restaurant.
