

Cozy England

A Hosted Holiday Journey to London & the Cotswolds

November 20-27, 2027 | Preliminary Preview

Imagine England at its coziest: London glowing with Christmas lights, a vintage Routemaster rolling past iconic landmarks, afternoon tea and a West End evening, then a change of pace to honey-colored Cotswold villages, grand country estates and fireside hospitality. Cozy England is being designed as a small-group hosted journey with thoughtful experiences, relaxed time to explore, and festive traditions woven throughout.

• Festive London & private vintage Routemaster sightseeing	• Westminster Abbey, Piccadilly, Fortnum & Mason & afternoon tea
• West End theatre evening	• Choice of Warner Bros. Studio Tour or independent London discovery
• Blenheim Palace & Christmas market	• Cotswolds villages, country-house stay & hands-on holiday crafts

Be among the first to know.

Pricing and final arrangements are still being developed. Pre-register your interest now and we will hold your place on the priority list before the trip officially launches. There is no obligation until final pricing and booking terms are released.

Cozy England 2027

The itinerary is still being finalized; experiences and sequencing may change.

Day 1 - Saturday, Nov. 20 | Depart for England

Depart California for London. International airfare is not included in the land program; Nations Executive Travel Service can assist with flight arrangements.

Day 2 - Sunday, Nov. 21 | Welcome to Festive London

Arrive at Heathrow and transfer to our centrally located London hotel. Ease into England with a neighborhood stroll, seasonal lights and a welcoming Sunday Roast together.

Day 3 - Monday, Nov. 22 | Grand Introduction to London

See London from the top deck of a privately chartered vintage Routemaster, passing many of the capital's signature sights before free time around Covent Garden and Seven Dials.

Day 4 - Tuesday, Nov. 23 | Quintessential London

Explore Westminster Abbey, stroll through St. James's and Piccadilly, browse Hatchards and Fortnum & Mason, enjoy traditional afternoon tea, then gather for dinner and a West End performance.

Day 5 - Wednesday, Nov. 24 | London Your Way

Choose a Warner Bros. Studio Tour - The Making of Harry Potter experience or an independent London day with transit access and host recommendations. Reunite for a festive hands-on Christmas cracker workshop and a farewell-to-London dinner.

Day 6 - Thursday, Nov. 25 | Into the English Countryside

Leave London for Blenheim Palace, with time to explore the estate and seasonal Christmas market, then continue to a charming Cotswolds country-house hotel. This evening, gather for a special autumn feast inspired by the warmth and traditions of an American Thanksgiving, interpreted through the flavors and hospitality of the English countryside.

Day 7 - Friday, Nov. 26 | Castles, Villages & Country Crafts

Discover historic Cotswolds scenery and villages, with plans inspired by Sudeley Castle and a hands-on willow Christmas ornament workshop, followed by dinner in the countryside.

Day 8 - Saturday, Nov. 27 | Cotswolds Farewell

Take in panoramic countryside views and the village of Broadway, with time for independent browsing and lunch before a farewell celebration. Final departure arrangements will be confirmed with the completed itinerary.

Be among the first to know.

Pricing and final arrangements are still being developed. Pre-register your interest now and we will hold your place on the priority list before the trip officially launches. There is no obligation until final pricing and booking terms are released.

Pre-registering indicates interest and priority only; final itinerary, inclusions, availability, pricing, deposit and cancellation terms will be provided at launch.